

The Hanseatic League

Back to the middle ages and to the north of Europe! Somewhere on the Baltic sea! Tradesmen are travelling all over Europe to sell and buy goods. A lot of them use big ships - cogs they are called. During their journey they sell wheat, salt, beer, linen, metal and other things. In 1343 cities started to conclude treaties with other cities to protect their tradesmen. Trading got safer and more profitable. The community was called the Hanseatic League.

Start your own Be a and the Find treasure by using a secret map you got from a barmaid!

We cordially invite you and your friends to join us at IMWe at Easter 2004. There you will live, work and have fun together with 60 – 80 other guides and scouts from all over Europe aged 17 and upwards.

The programme of arts and crafts, theatre and music aims to provide you with space to discover your own creativity and express yourself while trying new activities and discovering new skills. IMWe aims to create an atmosphere where cultural exchange with scouts from all over Europe is effortless by working together, exchanging ideas and experimenting with them.

IMWe2004 programme

- ▶ For the whole week you choose a morning workshop where you work intensively in a small group on a project in the arts, crafts, music or theatre.
