

The Astrologist

Virgo - do you feel stressed and insecure? Worried about your performance? Just rub a lamp and only in 72 hours your jinni will teach you everything you need to know...and probably also what you don't need to know.

Libra - do not judge others by their turbans. Beauty comes from the inside. Spend more time getting to know others, otherwise you might miss out on that someone special...

Leo - 4 hugs a day are necessary for survival, 8 hugs for maintenance and 12 hugs for growth. 36 hugs might just lead to exchange of different diseases, so be careful...

Sagittarius - you woke up this morning to realize that while you were sleeping your jinni has locked you into his lamp. Not to worry, being used by multiple masters for the rest of your life might actually turn out to be fun.

Scorpio - one of your 40 wives has lately been feeling left alone. Unless you start paying more attention to her, you will wake up one morning and realize that you've been visited by the BRS (ball removal squad).

Aries - your snake has given up on you. Enough with the charming just give it some rest. A night of proper sleep will properly motivate it!

Pisces - relax and take it easy! There is more fish in the sea! The night is young and so are you!

Taurus - you find yourself waking up in the basement feeling cold and dirty. Perhaps it makes more sense for you to go down there with your jammies and pillow next time.

Gemini - rubbing your lamp a little too much won't help you gain extra wishes. Do not over do it!

Capricorn - this is a great day for a flying carpet magic ride. Just make sure you are not alone on it and do some proper tuning beforehand.

Aquarius - you took a wrong turn and missed the oasis. A thirsty camel is a very sad camel: get back on the right track!

Cancer - yippi yeah! This is your day! Mazara noticed you at the party, now all you have to do is bust a move!

Danger from behind!

Lately CNN has witnessed several attempts to kill the Caliph. He has managed to escape them all, so we wonder if this is only luck, or the Caliph is born under a lucky star. It is obvious that the security around the Caliph isn't good enough, says Isnogood. I have been trying to convince the Caliph that we should get him a bodyguard. But he doesn't listen. It is clear that someone wants the Caliph dead. CNN has confidential information that the person that wants the Caliph dead is someone in his circle of trust.

But who could it be? Isnogood, Hasnoballs or even the lovely daughter of his, Mazara? Maybe it is time for the Caliph to get new advisers? At least the Caliph should start to be a little more careful. The assassin is not likely to give up.

No. 4, Friday 03/21/08

It's my party and I cry if I want to!

Yesterday Mazara, the utterly spoiled only child of the Caliph had her childish sweet sixteen party in Sand Ali's treasure cave. Mazara, formally known as Miss Change, received a lot of pleasure from the folk of Al' Mashewa. When observing the presents for Mazara one can easily see her slight fixation and exaggerated interest about the ones of sexual nature. Among all the gifts there was a special one which received the highest attention of the princess. It was a Jinni that will teach her the art of seduction within a crash course of three days. A special seminar will be held about the specifics of handling the laser-one-eyed snake! We don't have to mention the use of the other presents. What we are interested in, is the struggle between the princess and the Caliph Isafar. When will the Caliph finally put an end to the wild life of the princess? Can we still expect the princess's marriage while the Caliph is alive? Already now we can sense pressure from the conservative party - which has always been loyal to the Caliph - that the princess should not be pampered and spoiled all the time. The citizens of Al' Mashewa are troubled as well, since in case of no soon decision, a referendum will be called upon and a vote will be held. This hasn't happened in the last 569 years. Will the Caliph be able to put aside his literally unconditional love for Mazara and make the right decision for Al'Mashewa?

The first lesson!

Find five differences and win a prize!

CNN is announcing a contest: find five differences between each of the pairs of the pictures and win a free „Balls of fury testicle removal“!

The battle of vehicles: flying carpets vs horses

The citizens of Al'Mashewa are all forming queues to buy the latest invention – flying carpet Al'Bentli 4500. This, however, has lead to a significant drop in the wage level of horses due to the lowered demand. The labour union "Horses United" have announced a possible strike to come up next week. CNN have asked a well known expert to comment on the pros and cons of both means of transportation. Mr Ride-it-hard reports: "It is very important to choose wisely, what exactly you want to ride on. The pros of the new line Al'Bentli 4500 are essential. They don't speak, they don't consume water, they don't bother their masters with silly comments and anecdotes. And what is more important, they offer you an opportunity of elevation, which significantly eases transportation over the wild deserts. However, what they are lacking and what makes them inferior to the classic models of horses is the lack of individuality and personal approach. Flying carpets are not capable of bonding. And they are also said to be easily frightened. So in case of danger of fire, shark, mean jinnis and horny shop assistants, your carpet will be the first one to flee and leave you behind. So, my dear friends, don't be fooled by the latest fashion! Give your horse a proper hug and apologize, as by the end of the day, it will be him who will stay with you in sickness and health till death do you part".

How to be a second choice taken from the life of one of 13 wives part 3: The baby shower

Oh, I'm getting sick! My head, it hurts so much and I don't find sleep at night.

And all this because of this stupid ugly dribbled thing. It's the first one in our family. The other ones either died during their birth or were lapitaded along with their mothers because the mothers were caught picking apples from trees in other gardens. Surely I wasn't sad about this. I hate Tthem, I hate it all. They suck! Since Lubna is the mother everybody loves her. There are 13 wives in this harem but all the attention goes to her...and also the sucking sweet squaller. But why? Earlier nobody liked Lubna since she is boring and she doesn't look like a woman at all! And now suddenly she is the most feminine woman in the whole harem and why? Only because she has milk in her breasts?

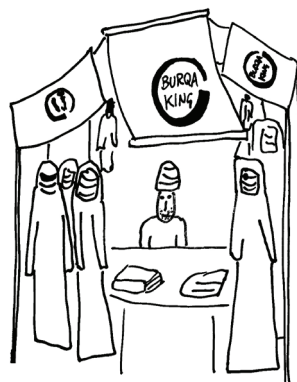

Oh, wow, i want it too... What's happened with the world? Do you have to be a mother to be a woman? Why can't you be a woman on your own? Isn't it enough that we already have this big baby aka husband? Sadly there are women who just can't get enough!

I've already told you that I don't really like them but now I hate them! No, I will never get such a dribbler because I am already enough of a woman without it. I don't care what Ali says.

At the moment he says nothing. Or to be more precise, he says nothing to me. He is only talking about his „only pride“. Oh, I forgot to mention a little detail: the toddler is a boy.
