

Endgame 2013 - Bonsai growing game!

Aim of the game: Growing the best bonsai(height, colour, kind) OR Earning most money

To produce a BONSAI the team needs 3 things:

1. pot
2. seed
3. water

1. pots: There are 5 different pot types. The larger the pot, the bigger can the Bonsai grow.
Funny names for pots! Or the worst pot is only a shoe...

- 1
- 2
- 3
- 4
- 5

Try to get real pots!

2. seed: it is a card where the sort, the species and the growing speed of each bonsai is written on.

3. water: You need water for every new Bonsai.

Teams need to get water. It will be used up for each growing.

Teams

The members will be selected randomly. Each Team has a number and a may choose a name.
The members of the team can split up as they wish and do not have to stay together. Each team starts with ...

Stations

Pots Center (Pots)

This is where pots can be bought in an “auction?”. Only every second round?
Aim: groups can buy different pots for different prices.

Garden Center (Seeds)

Every seed costs X. Not every seed is available at all times.

Mr. Miyagi

Combine seeds / rollings the dice / getting new sorts

Water hole / well / fountain

Pump water for 5 minutes to get one water card. Or doing silly tasks such as:
folding origami

Bonsai Plantation

this is where it's tricky. groups bring pots, seeds and water - plant bonsai. keep track which bonsai is ready in which round. hand your bonsai card, pot and seed back to group.

Bonsai cutter

Give your grown Bonsai to the Bonsai cutter and he will take care of it for 2 rounds. This makes your Bonsai more valuable.

Bonsai Planet

Here the teams can sell their Bonsais.
